Kupika and 90 prisoners and a lot of deck.

Shipping Notes.

The bark Melrose will leave for the Sound in ballast after discharging her coal. The barkentine Anella may not get away to-day for the Sound where she goes to load lumber. She had not cleared at a late hour this afternoon.
The C. A. S. S. Warrimoo, Bird master, arrived at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, from Vancouver via Victoria. She left the latter port on Sept. 17th, at 4:30 p.m. The Warrimoo brought 2,000 tons of freight for this port.

A Grand Feature

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that while it purifies the blood and sends it coursing through the veins full of richness and health, it also imparts new life and vigor to every function of the body. Hence the expression so often heard: "Hood's Sarsaparilla made a new person of me." It overcomes that tired feeling so common now.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, always reliable and beneficial.

LADIES' COLUMN.

Those who think themselves worldly-wise act in various ways that are both interesting and instructive. You can persuade a business man into anything good by the intelligent use of wise and moderate argument, but this has no weight with a woman. They like what they like because —. They are more careful, know values better, and will not be deceived. To talk Quick Sales and Small Profits without meaning it, would be suicide. We do TALK it and DO MEAN it. Our SALES show you also, believe it. It's those who may be unacquainted with this fact that we are trying to reach.

We said we would mention WOOLEN GOODS this week and so we will. We have been making considerable effort for some time back to buy the best to be had in the line, and will offer this week some of the handsomest Cashmere's ever offered in Honolulu. Our evening shades of Colored Woollens are positive beauties—in fact in our line of Colored Woollens it would be hard to ask for what you want and not find it. These goods run in all qualities with Quick Sales and Small Profit prices.

We have a few remnant of Black Cashmere, just what you want—because they are yours for little money.

We also want to mention HANDKERCHIEFS. We have some very hand-some unbordered ones. Also, a good stock of desirable plain ones—while every counter in the store will convince you of a I we say about Quick Sales and Small Profits.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

See additions to Mr. Levey's sale on Saturday.

Mrs. M. M. Thirds will lecture at Theosophy hall this evening.

Recent advices by the S. S. Warrimoo quote the price of sugar at 3 1/2c.

Sir Robert Heron arrived with his son by the S. S. Warrimoo yesterday, to join Lady Heron and family.

How jolly, to ride in a bus to Waikiki for five cents! That is what Mr. Smith offers now—half hour trips at that.

Judge Bickerton, wife and son returned by the S. S. Warrimoo yesterday from abroad. They are in the best of health.

King Bros. say something to-day that ought to be carefully weighed. They tell how to decorate your homes at moderate expense.

Captain Milne, of the Salvation Army, left on the steamer Kinu this afternoon for Hilo, Hawaii, expecting to return on the return boat.

Mechanics' Home, corner Hotel and Nuuanu streets, lodging by day, week or month. Terms: 25 and 50 cents per night; $1 and $1.25 per week.

The board of trustees of the Queen's Hospital will hold a special meeting in the Chamber of Commerce at 10:30 o'clock to-morrow morning.

A Chinaman was taken with fits while standing on the Kinu wharf this afternoon. He was picked up, put in a wagon and driven to a doctor uptown.

Orlway & Porter have joined the literati. That is, they prove themselves, elsewhere, to be well lettered. It's their fine stock of furniture that talks, however.

W. G. Irwin & Co., Ltd., have received by the barkentine W. H. Dimond a lot of Alaskan fish guano, also a consignment of N. Ohlandt & Co.'s celebrated high grade fertilizer.

There are important cases in which the difference between half a heart and a whole heart makes just the difference between signal defeat and a splendid victory. "The Sun outshines all."

Mr. Berthrup, who lately arrived from the Coast, will leave on the steamer W. G. Hall to start a coffee plantation on Kona, Hawaii. He is in partnership with Mr. Delaney. Both are visitors.

The S. S. Mowara will take the place of the Warrimoo next month, the latter lying up for overhauling at Sydney. It is likely the Arawa will retire from the route after her next trip from Vancouver to Sydney.

G. H. Harrison, practical piano and organ maker and tuner, can furnish best factory references. Orders left at Hawaiian News Co. will receive prompt attention. All work guaranteed to be the same as done in factory.

J. W. Chapman caters for banquets, socials, private dinners and garden parties. Weddings a specialty. Can be found at all hours at Sans Souci or will call on any ladies or gentlemen who will address him through the Post Office.

Prof. Hosmer and wife, of Oahu College, are back from their summer's vacation. They were greeted with the college yell on the wharf as the Warrimoo was approaching. The faculty and nearly the entire school were on the wharf.

President Dole left by the steamer Kinu this afternoon for Hawaii. The Hawaiian flag was flying at the masthead, and the government band stationed on the wharf gave the president a parting serenade, while the field battery fired a salute.

The ladies who have the arrangement of the Catholic fair in hand are working hard to make it a success. The affair takes place in the Beretania street Armory on Oct. 21, and the proceeds will be donated to the repairing of the church organ.

KINAU LEAVES.

Departure of the Presidential Party for the Volcano.

The Kinu wharf was packed this afternoon at 2 o'clock when the good steamer Kinu steamed away from the wharf. On the upper deck were President and Mrs. S. B. Dole, with Miss Clara Dole, Mrs. E. F. Dillingham and others, who are on their way to the Volcano. The Stars and Stripes floated to the breeze at the foremast and the Hawaiian flag at the main mast. The Government band on the wharf was playing one of Berger's new marches, when someone shouted out, "Here comes the P. G. soldiers." Every neck was strained to catch a glimpse of the glittering uniforms, but instead of the soldiers a line of prisoners in white and blue striped suits lay in view. There were thirty-two in those suits and four in the common prisoner's garb—thirty-six in all. They are going to Hilo to work on the Volcano road and are in charge of Lieutenant Kane. Passing the shore battery President Dole was saluted with twenty-one guns.

Birthday Party

Cain D. Wilokai entertained his fellow members of the Quintet Club at dinner at his residence on Richards street yesterday evening. The occasion was the first anniversary of the birth of his little daughter and the happy father was assiduous in his attentiveness to the comfort of his guests. The health of the young one and her parents was toasted, after which the club retired to the veranda, where instrumental and vocal music was rendered. The excellent music of the Quintet Club attracted quite a number of outsiders, who enjoyed it from the street.

SPECIAL OFFICER SHOT

Seems to Have "Needed Killing," as Mark Twain's Story Says.

Tom Dorrell, a burly colored man and a special policeman, was shot in the leg by Bob Robinson, proprietor of the Eureka House, corner of Beretania and Maunakea streets, about 6:30 o'clock this morning. Dorrell rents a room in the upstairs portion of the Eureka House, and for several days past has been carousing and causing disturbances much to the annoyance of the proprietor. Last night Dorrell and Chas. Knudsen (special policeman) and two native policemen retired to Dorrell's room and according to the statements of the first two named drank the Japanese liquor, "saki." All four officers were supposed to be on duty at the time. Finishing their "saki" Dorrell and Knudsen walked down Maunakea street and met Tom Collins, a sailor belonging to the American bark Melrose. They were hilarious and creating a good deal of noise, and were quieted by other officers. The specials invited Collins to Dorrell's room, where they drank more "saki." Knudsen asked Collins whether he had any money, and the latter handed over fifty cents. More "saki" was procured by the specials, after drinking which they became all the noisier. The sailor left near midnight, and while walking on Alakea street about half an hour later met Knudsen with a valise and other articles, including a gold watch and chain. Knudsen, who was pretty full at the time, asked Collins to strike a match so that he could look at the time. The match was struck and it was seen to be 1:30 a.m. The special allowed the sailor to carry the watch and asked him to go with him. He directed the sailor, who was a stranger, to the Police Station, where he laid a charge of robbery against him.

Knudsen claims on his side that he saw Collins in a room on the Bluegate premises, Merchant street, taking the valise, watch and other things, and lured him to the station. The articles were found this morning to be the property of Haawinaupo, owner of the Bluegate. What makes Knudsen's story improbable is the fact that he was carrying the valise, coat and other trinkets himself, while the other article the sailor had was the watch, and when he found himself in the Police Station he suspected a game and hid the watch, which was later found inside his pants at the back.

Collins was tried in the District Court to-day, found not guilty and discharged.

Deputy Marshal Brown asked for the man's discharge, stating that the case was an unsavory one, and in his mind seemed much like a put-up job.

Dorrell continued his carousal in his lodgings at the Eureka House after he returned from duty at 6 o'clock this morning. Robinson requested him to keep quiet or leave his house, when the latter negro became nasty and wanted to fight. Robinson knew he had no show with him, so he took out a small 22 calibre pistol and fired three shots, one of which lodged in the negro's leg. Henry Luning happened to come along and he took the pistol away. The police was notified and Dorrell was taken to the hospital, where the bullet was extracted. Dorrell, under the influence of liquor, is all right. It was only a tiny bullet that hit him.

Knudsen, Dorrell and one of the native policemen have been given the g. b., and the other officer, who was a new man, was given another trial.

The Empress Line.

One of the Warrimoo's passengers said in Honolulu last night there was talk in Canada of the three magnificent "Empress" steamers being put on this route. They would be replaced on the China route by much stronger vessels, to cope with Northern Pacific gales and the typhoons of the Orient. On a recent trip one of these steamers had shipped a sea down her funnel.

A. M. Bailey, a well known citizen of Eugene, Oregon, says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and used many remedies with little relief until she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has cured her sound and well. Give it a trial and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS

Estate of a Minor—Steamer Waimanalo in Court

Henry Smith, master, has filed his report on the final account of C. F. Iaukea, guardian of Uweini Turton, or Kauehema, a minor. Receipts were $5257.05, and payments $4890.42, showing a balance in hand of $366.63. The master finds the accounts prima facie correct, but an over-charge of $123.25 on account of commissions. Uweini is now the wife of J. D. Johnson of Kona, Hawaii. The will of Peter Porter Kauehema, under which she inherits, has a proviso that in case of her failure to have issue the property would descend to one Uweini, the wife of James Auld and to her heirs and assigns forever. Mrs. Johnson has not had issue, but the wife of James Auld has died and her heirs are not now in the Republic.

William O. Smith, Attorney-General, by his deputy, A. G. M. Robertson, has filed a claim in the Circuit Court for $77.50 against the steamer Waimanalo. The bill is made up of towage in distress, wharfage, taxes, 10 percent penalty, and advertising. The Supreme Court is hearing appeals in term to-day. Present: Chief Justice Judd, Associate Justices Bickerton and Frear.

While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took such a severe cold that he could hardly talk or negotiate, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured him of his cold so quickly that others at the hotel who had had colds followed his example and half a dozen persons ordered it from the nearest drug store. They were profuse in their thanks to Mr. Kahler for telling them how to cure a bad cold so quickly. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Carefully Weighed

Calculations Lead to Correct Results.

Where people make a mistake is in supposing that good pictures are necessarily expensive.

We are selling pictures every day, fit to grace any home, the prices of which would astonish those not acquainted with the fact. It is not necessary to get a first proof etching or engraving in order to have a work of art. The method of reproduction now in vogue, makes it possible for people of moderate means as well as their wealthier neighbor, to gratify their taste for the beautiful.

Great range for the display of taste, in the selection of subjects, is afforded by our keeping pictures in sheet form and mouldings from which to select the frames.

One need never be at a loss to know what to give as a present, at any time or for any purpose, for there is nothing better than a picture. And KING BROS. is the place to get them.
